The Honorable Erich Bloch
Director
National Science Foundation
1800 "G" Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20550

Dear Mr. Bloch:

STAT

As previously indicated to you by [redacted] of Carnegie-Mellon University, CIA is establishing a distinguished guest speaker program in the fields of science and technology.

I would be pleased if you would lead off this new series by addressing Agency personnel on 3 March at 0930 on some of the key issues in the S&T area, as you see them impacting on our mission in the next decade or so. The suggested format is a lecture of 35 to 45 minutes, followed by a 20 to 30 minute question period.

STAT

Personnel of our Science and Technology Institute will be using the services of [redacted] to coordinate your visit. Any questions that might arise can be directed through him.

I hope that you will be able to accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert M. Gates

SUBJECT: Guest Speaker on "S&amp;T in the Year 2000: Key Issues and Implications for Strategic Intelligence"

1. The Science and Technology Institute of the Office of Training and Education, Directorate of Administration, has been successful in obtaining The Honorable Erich Bloch, Director of the National Science Foundation, as a guest speaker. Mr. Bloch is scheduled to address interested Agency personnel at 0930, 3 March in the Headquarters Auditorium.

2. As was the case when we had Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski as a guest speaker last year, I would like to bring Mr. Bloch to your office at 0900 for introductions and photos. We could proceed from there to the auditorium where you, or your designee, could introduce him.

3. Attached for your signature is the letter formally inviting Mr. Bloch.

Dear Eli:

STAT Just wanted to thank you for a delightful time in Los Angeles and San Diego. The game was obviously a great experience (the smell of the crowd, the roar of the grease paint and all that). The dinner with [redacted] was also a special treat. All in all, it was a great weekend and I appreciate your making it possible.

Also, thanks for setting up the morning at the Times Mirror. I felt there was a good opportunity for constructive dialogue at all three meetings.

I enclose a copy of the final version of the Soviet speech as delivered in Dallas and in Hawaii. It has gone down well and has gotten some circulation here in Washington. As for the press, only the Washington Times has taken any note of it so far, although we have made it available to a number of others. I guess it is not a particularly welcome message.

See you soon.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE SOVIET UNION
BY ROBERT M. GATES
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

INTRODUCTION

THE SELECTION OF MIKHAIL GORBACHEV AS GENERAL SECRETARY IN THE SPRING OF 1985 SIGNALLED THE POLITBURO'S RECOGNITION THAT THE SOVIET UNION WAS IN DEEP TROUBLE -- ESPECIALLY ECONOMICALLY AND SPIRITUALLY -- TROUBLE THAT THEY RECOGNIZED WOULD SOON BEGIN TO HAVE REAL EFFECT ON MILITARY POWER AND THEIR POSITION IN THE WORLD. DESPITE ENORMOUS RAW ECONOMIC POWER AND RESOURCES, INCLUDING A $2 TRILLION A YEAR GNP, THE SOVIET LEADERSHIP BY THE MID-1980S CONFRONTED A STEADILY WIDENING GAP WITH THE WEST AND JAPAN -- ECONOMICALLY, TECHNOLOGICALLY AND IN VIRTUALLY ALL AREAS OF THE QUALITY OF LIFE.

AS A RESULT OF THESE TRENDS, THE POLITBURO RECOGNIZED THAT THE SOVIET UNION COULD NO LONGER RISK THE SUSPENDED ANIMATION OF THE BREZHNEV YEARS, AND COALESCED AROUND AN IMAGINATIVE AND VIGOROUS LEADER WHOM THEY HOPED COULD REVITALIZE THE COUNTRY WITHOUT ALTERING THE BASIC STRUCTURE OF THE SOVIET STATE OR COMMUNIST PARTY.

Dear Lenny:

I have received the enclosed memorandum from Headquarters Air University at Maxwell proposing a "Conference on Intelligence in Senior Professional Military Education." I am quite willing to support the proposed conference and even accept the invitation to be the keynoter. However, before going further, I want to make sure you are aware of the proposal and that you and DIA also are supportive or at least have no objections.

CIA plays a supporting role at the National Defense University and Service War Colleges. I believe the primary role concerning intelligence at military schools belongs to DIA and the Defense Intelligence College. Before going forward, I just want to make sure you are aware and involved.

Because of the timing, I would appreciate hearing from you, even by telephone, at your earliest convenience.

Regards,

Robert M. Gates

MEMORANDUM FOR: Honorable Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Proposed Conference on Intelligence in Senior Professional Military Education

1. It is abundantly clear that the great majority of students entering our senior service schools are not well versed in the capabilities and limitations of intelligence, national or departmental. More often than not, their knowledge runs from rudimentary at worst to imperfect, and perhaps skewed, at best. While they are exposed to intelligence during the student year, the exposure--particularly as it pertains to national security and to war-fighting--varies from school to school. Much of the input necessarily focuses on problems that are "service-unique."

2. This situation strongly suggests the need to develop a joint approach to the role of intelligence in senior PME and to examine the possibility of improving still further the intelligence support provided to our senior schools. A conference of the intelligence advisors/representatives and the deans of National Defense University and the Army, Naval and Air War Colleges would constitute a major step in meeting these objectives.

3. We propose, therefore, that the first such conference be convened in late April 1988, preferably at a secure facility in or near Washington, or failing that, at the Air University's Wargaming Center, Maxwell AFB.

4. In addition to the intelligence advisors and the deans of the senior schools, we would propose also to include the dean of the Defense Intelligence College. We would also invite, as speakers and observers, senior officers from the national intelligence community and the service intelligence chiefs.

5. The conference would concentrate on the following topics:

a) Intelligence support functions common to all the schools and those that are unique;

b) Intelligence briefing programs: who briefs on what and when; are there significant areas not being treated;

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SEPTEMBER 18, 1947

c) The critical role of intelligence in wargaming; the nature and extent of "red-side" and third-world input;

d) Intelligence in the core curricula--the views of the deans;

e) The proper role of intelligence in PME; perspectives of service intelligence chiefs and national community representatives.

6. Three days should suffice for the conference. We anticipate attendance by 15-20 full-time working participants, and about 6-10 guests.

7. Unless you direct otherwise, we will proceed with arrangements for the conference.

FROM: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

The attached has been passed to me by a very experienced and senior member of several DoD advisory panels. I suspect that what he says is true, that is, there is no one on the arms control delegations with a comprehensive knowledge of US defense and intelligence contractor installations and thus in a position to advise the negotiators.

I would appreciate your pursuing this, perhaps at a SACG, by seeing if there is not a need for such a person either in the delegation or in the arms control loop here in Washington. Let me know what you find out.

SUBJECT: Duration of Details to Other Government Organizations

25X1 1. I mentioned to you and the Director last week that I had a security problem case with a young woman who has been detailed to [redacted] since 1971. I thought that part of the reason for her poor security practices may have been brought about by the long time she has been away from this Agency. During a meeting with her today, it became perfectly clear that that is the case. While I only gave her a verbal reprimand and told her I was recommending to the Office of Security that they perform a repolygraph in the next 6 to 18 months, I pointed out that if she had been working within this Directorate I probably would have recommended dismissal.

25X1 2. I recommend that you direct the Office of Personnel to look at fixing the duration of tours to other government agencies. It seems to me four years should be an outside limit.

NOTE TO: Executive Director
FROM: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Regarding the Executive Management Session

The Judge and I discussed some of the sourness associated with the Executive Session and I think have come up with an option that produces less unhappiness. We would like to schedule cocktails and dinner earlier on Monday evening and then after dinner have the participants in the Executive Management Session go to [ ] where we can have a bar set up and have that discussion Monday evening. Then move the previously scheduled Monday evening session to Tuesday morning, a session that everyone would participate in. Also schedule a wrap-up session of about 45 minutes for Tuesday morning. If there isn't a lot to do Tuesday morning we could even begin a little later and let everyone sleep in a bit.

In short, the idea is that we would do the Executive Session in a somewhat more discreet way as an after dinner session outside of [ ] and then continue with the regular schedule on Tuesday. I will be back around lunch time if you need to pursue this or have questions. If not, go ahead and have [ ] make the arrangements to have a bar and ice set up over at [ ] for Monday night.

RE: Speaking Invitation
 Co-keynote Speaker
 Public Affairs Forum Committee
 Indiana University of Pennsylvania
 Indiana, Pennsylvania
 11 April, 1988

Professor of Political Science at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Edward Platt, has invited you to be the co-keynote speaker at the annual Raymond L. Lee Public Affairs Forum on Monday evening 11 April. The event will take place at the Fisher Auditorium on the IUP campus. An invitation to be the co-keynote speaker has been extended to Representative Lee Hamilton. The suggested topics are for you to speak on the "Traditional Functions of National Intelligence" and Representative Hamilton on "Covert Action and Congressional Oversight." The format would be 20 - 30 minutes of remarks by each speaker followed by 30 - 45 minute question and answer period. Dr. Platt does not intend for this to become a debate, but rather a "reasoned discussion of the various roles of intelligence in a free society." You could expect an audience of 750 - 1000 students, faculty, and general public. The electronic and print media will cover the event.

The Public Affairs Forum, established in 1959, provides a platform for views of contemporary political issues to be aired before the college community. Previous speakers have included Ambassador L. Bruce Laingen, Ambassador Robert B. Oakley, Representative Philip Crane and Representative Leon Panetta. (See brochure opposite for complete list.)

This looks like a good forum for you to address and I recommend that you accept this invitation. As yet the University does not have Representative Hamilton's acceptance, but we understand that the invitation is under serious consideration. Another member of one of the Congressional Oversight Committees will be invited if he declines. Attached is a letter of acceptance for your signature.

Dr. Robert Gates
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Dr. Gates:

On behalf of the Public Affairs Forum committee, I would like to invite you to be a co-keynote speaker at this year's event. The topic will be "Covert Action and the Intelligence Function". The forum will take place on Monday evening, April 11, 1988, at the Fisher Auditorium on the IUP campus.

To make participation feasible for our Washington guests, I charter a twin-engine Beechcraft Kingaire aircraft from Page Airways, operating out of Dulles International Airport. The aircraft is fully equipped and carries a pilot and co-pilot. The schedule looks something like this:

Monday, April 11:

- 5:00 p.m. - leave Dulles International Airport on Page Airways for Indiana, Pennsylvania.
- 5:40 p.m. - arrive Jimmy Stewart Airport, Indiana, Pa.
- 6:00 p.m. - dinner with the IUP President, selected faculty and students.
- 7:15 p.m. - press interviews with regional newspapers and t.v.
- 8:00 p.m. - presentation at Fisher Auditorium, followed by questions from audience (written questions).
- 10:00 p.m. - return to Jimmy Stewart Airfield for return to Washington, D.C.
- 10:45 p.m. - arrival at Dulles International Airport

As you can see, we make every effort to minimize your time away from Washington, D.C. while utilizing your talents for our presentation. I understand that you are not permitted to accept an honorarium for your speech, but we will provide your transportation and hospitality during your visit to us.

I would expect an audience of from 750 to 1000 people, including the university community and the general public. We normally receive excellent regional media coverage for the event.

I am extending a similar invitation to Rep. Lee Hamilton, of the House Intelligence Committee, to appear as co-keynoter on the same evening. My notion is that you might speak on the "Traditional Functions of National Intelligence", while Rep. Hamilton might speak on "Covert Action and Congressional Oversight". We aren't looking for a debate, but for a reasoned discussion of the various roles of intelligence in a free society.

I just finished reading your article in the most recent issues of "Foreign Affairs" and found it most interesting. Last April, with the Center for the Study of Intelligence held a conference for professors who taught intelligence-related courses, I had the opportunity to speak with you very briefly during a late afternoon reception at Langley. Now it is my turn to offer hospitality to you.

We hope that you can participate in the Public Affairs Forum this year. I am enclosing a program from our previous forum (I was unable to secure appropriate speakers last year- for the first time since the forum's inception we messed things up!) As you can see from the list of speakers over the past decade, we have attracted a wide variety of notable personalities for the occasion.

With kindest regards,

Speaking Invitation

Jackson, Mississippi

February/April or convenient date 1988

Director of the Center for International Security and Strategic Studies at Mississippi State University, Dr. Janos Radvanyi, has invited you or the DDCI to address the Executive Lecture Forum at either a luncheon or dinner in Jackson sometime during the months of February or April or a mutually convenient date. You could expect an audience of 35 - 40 prominent area businessmen and state government officials. You are also invited to meet with students and faculty at the Mississippi State University campus in Starkville.

The purpose of the Executive Lecture Forum is to provide Mississippi's leading citizens with a forum for an exchange of views with high government officials on critical global security issues. Previous speakers have been General James A. Abrahamson, Air Commodore Sir Frank Whittle, General Pierre M. Gallois, French Ambassador Emmanuel de Margerie, and Belgium Ambassador Herman Dehennin. (See brochures opposite.)

Looking at your heavy spring schedule, I recommend that you decline this invitation. I do not believe that the DDCI should do this one either. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret for your signature.
